My dear Mr Pfeiffer-

Some man has been trying to talk to me from Philadelphia this evening. The first time I could make out nothing except that it was an unknown man's voice and the name he gave sounded like Camden or Cadman. Just now at ~~ten~~ thirty he tried again and I made out that he wanted to make an appointment to see me, that it was important as he had something that I ~~wanted~~. I said I did not know him and that I would make no appointment and then I hung up. I wish that I could have ^{found} out who it was without more talk, but I do not suppose it was really anything.. I dont like such things at all.

What did you think of the telegram I sent y
you?

Very truly
